

Employment Opportunity: Piano Faculty (Part-Time)

Attacca School of Music is seeking a part time (with possibility to grow to full time) Piano Faculty member/s to take over a portion or full amount of an existing strong studio of students, starting from May 4th 2026. We are looking for a dedicated teacher who views teaching as a professional priority and is interested in building long-term relationships with students and families.

About Attacca

Attacca is a community-focused music school dedicated to thoughtful, high-quality music education. We work with students of all ages and levels (including adult programming), offering private lessons, group classes, chamber music, and performance opportunities.

Position Details & Schedule (up to 4 days to be taken over by one or several candidates)

Teaching in-person weekly piano lessons to students ages 5/6 through adult (including some more advanced and also some students with specific learning considerations). Time windows of teaching are subject to slight changes that may occur within a semester.

Priority will be given to candidates who are able to fulfill all four days.

- Mondays between 3:30-8:45pm (with 30 minute dinner break)
- Tuesdays 3:00-8:00pm (with 30 minute dinner break)
- Thursdays 3:30-8:30pm (with 30 minute dinner break)
- Fridays 2:30-8:15pm (with 30 minute dinner break)

Responsibilities

- Take over and maintain continuity of a long standing pre-existing studio
- Plan and deliver structured, engaging lessons
- Support and encourage student participation school events like performance hours, recitals, group programs, and school concert series
- Communicate clearly with families and
- Keep in contact with administration and be responsive to communicating
- Contribute to a collaborative faculty environment

Commitment

- Consistent weekly teaching during the academic year (34 weeks)
- Flexible summer schedule (minimum requirement 3 weeks)
- Participation in recitals, performance hours, and faculty activities

Qualifications

- At least Masters Degree
- At least 2-3 years of formal one-on-one private lesson teaching experience required (from Ages 5 and up)
- Organized, reliable, communicative, and proactive to be involved in our community
- Interest in long-term studio development

Compensation

$53–$60/hour (W-2), based on experience, with opportunities for growth.
Includes Massachusetts earned sick time and applicable leave programs.

Benefits:

Part Time Faculty (below 20 hours)

- Massachusetts earned paid sick time and applicable leave programs.
- Paid Faculty meetings
- Paid Performance hours students participate in and teacher is present for
- Paid recitals students participate in and teacher is present for
- Paid School provided professional development (visiting artist concerts, workshops,
- Opportunities for additional compensated roles (chamber music, summer programs, leading group classes, etc).

Full Time Faculty (20+ hours of teaching)

- Everything listed in part time
- Paid time off (based on role and tenure)
- Health Insurance Stipend
- 401K Retirement Plan (with possible employer contribution above 25 hours)

Interview Process:

Two rounds - first online, second in person with required teaching demonstration

If accepted for the role, a week of shadowing lessons prior to starting will also be required

To Apply

Please submit materials to info@attaccaschoolofmusic.com, attention Mrs. Margaret Boswell, Faculty Chair – Piano Department, including:

- Resume
- Cover letter outlining teaching experience, approach, and availability/amount of days out of the 4 available candidate is interested to take on
- 2–3 references

Attacca School of Music welcomes applicants from a wide range of backgrounds. Hiring decisions are based on qualifications, experience, and the needs of the school.